Journal of Occupational and Environmental Medicine

The modern day Journal of Occupational and Environmental Medicine (JOEM) began in January 1959 as the Journal of Occupational Medicine (JOM). 1 To give the new periodical gravitas and credibility, the sponsoring organization (later to become the American College of Occupational and Environmental Medicine [ACOEM]), 2 appointed Adolph G. Kammer (1903-1962), a former President of the organization and a distinguished professor at the University of Pittsburgh, as its first Editor. 3 It was ...

Using these studies, we calculated the geometric mean comparative risk of contracting mesothelioma versus ovarian cancer from the same asbestos exposures. We applied this comparative risk to the line of best fit for mesothelioma based on the EPA dose-response data to determine a formula for risk of ovarian cancer.. The subjects of the EPA occupational exposure study were entirely men. 92 ...
